To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Jeremy Britton

Jeremy Britton has been my Financial Planner for some four years now, since our first meeting at Clifford Gardens in 2000.

During that time Jeremy has been instrumental in making me more money, and protecting the money I had.

On Jeremy's advice I sold my shares in AMP for over $21, a short while before they plummeted to under $5.

Preventing this major potential loss was an excellent move. The funds that were saved were then invested into property, which has dramatically increased in value in the last few years.

I still have some investments in shares, both Australian and overseas. These have performed very well recently, returning around 20%.

In the last few years, I have made great returns, paid less tax and experienced excellent client service.

I wholeheartedly recommend the services of Jeremy Britton for assistance in growing, protecting and maintaining your wealth.
